Ms. Sweety Tiwari and Dr. Vikram Dongre
Jhulelal Institute of Technology, Nagpur, India

Abstract: The financial market is a highly dynamic and complex ecosystem, consisting of multiple asset classes and financial instruments. The derivative market is one such instrument, which has gained significant popularity among investors and traders alike. Derivatives are financial contracts that derive their value from an underlying asset, such as stocks, bonds, commodities, currencies, or indices. The derivative market provides investors with a platform to manage their risk exposure and earn profits by speculating on the price movements of the underlying asset.

Keywords: EMI, Lend, interest rate, Home Loan, No-credit home loan
