

A Study Freedom of Speech and Expression via Social Media

Chinmay Vilas Nakil

LLM 4th SEM School of Law,
Sandip University, Nashik, Maharashtra, India chinmaynakil@gmail.com

Abstract: As per Recent studies, a commitment to freedom of speech and expression means that an Individual must be free to speak to others and to hear what others may say, without Interference from the state. It is said that the answer to bad or erroneous speech is not The speaker., is seen as responsible for his or her actions, including harmful actions, Whether these actions occur because he or she agrees or disagrees with the speakers Message. As online spaces become increasingly integral to public discourse, this study explores the challenges and opportunities presented by digital communication technologies. It delves into the tensions between upholding individual liberties and addressing concerns such as hate speech, misinformation, and algorithmic bias. By analysing legal frameworks, platform policies, and societal implications, this abstract seeks to provide insights into navigating the complexities of online expression while safeguarding democratic principles in the digital age. In a democratic country like India, each and every citizen has the right to express and impart Information through social media. Because we enjoy this freedom, we can upload, uplink, comment, like, share, etc. through Social media. These social media sites provide complete or absolute freedom of expression; but as netizens how are we using it? This paper reviews the freedom of speech and expression and related violations through social media

Keywords: freedom, speech, social, media, rights, expression, Restrictions, Violations, Social media