

College Information System

Mrs. Shubhangi Kshirsagar, Dipali Ugale, Isha Thombare, Ajay Tipte,

Sahil Taksal, Shreyesh Tilekar

Department of Computer Engineering

Dr. DY Patil College of Engineering and Innovation, Pune, Maharashtra, India

Abstract: The College Information System is a modern web-based platform developed to optimize and digitize the administrative and academic operations within educational institutions. With a user-friendly interface and a comprehensive set of features, the system aims to enhance communication, streamline academic processes, and improve overall institutional efficiency. This research paper explores the development, core functionalities, and impact of the College Information System in supporting better management, coordination, and academic success.

Keywords: College Information System

